

90 CURLERS ENJOY VISITORS' FEAST

—
North Battleford Club Hosts at
Banquet; Variety Program
Is Presented
—

NORTH BATTLEFORD — The North Battleford curlers were hosts to visiting curlers on Wednesday evening at a banquet held in the Blue Room of the Savoy Cafe attended by over 90 guests. J. A. Foley, president of the North Battleford curling club, occupied the chair, and presided over the gathering. The address of welcome on behalf of the city was given by Alderman Otis Jones, in the absence of Mayor Gregory. Entertaining speeches, interspersed by songs and humorous items took up the major portion of the program, several skips from outside points taking part in the formed. Colonel Craig delighted the audience with a number of vocal selections. Messrs. S. G. Pickel, A. Bryan and D. Carruthers also gave musical numbers. Mayor Atkinson of Battleford, expressed the thanks of the visitors for the right royal welcome the North Battleford curlers had extended to them. Percy Hewitt officiated at the piano.