

Provincial sports scene

Thirty-two rinks from Saskatoon, Duck Lake, Wakaw, Laird, Hague and Rostern competed in the annual Rostern bonspiel when the Grand Challenge was won by Ron Lamers' Saskatoon Hub City rink with a victory over Ralph Spriggs of Rostern.

Other event winners were: first, Peter Fiolleau, Duck Lake; second, Mel Ferster, Rostern; third, John Braun, Laird; and fourth, Ron Bertrand, Saskatoon.

Winning skips in the events in the women's bonspiel at Star City in which 21 rinks competed were: Grand Challenge, Mary Wright, Tisdale first, Emily Braevolk, Melfort; second, Linda Cooper, Star City; third, Fern Dagg, Tisdale; and fourth, Grace LeGatt, Pathlow.

Lyle McNichol, an Eston district farmer, who is spending the winter at Mesa, Ariz. tied for second place in the low net division of the All-Canadian "Fountain of the Sun" golf tournament, which is sponsored by a town house mobile home and recreation complex of that name. Ninety Canadians competed.

A rink skipped by Carol Bacon of Kinistino edged the Fern Warner rink of Melfort to capture first prize in the main event of the annual Kinistino women's bonspiel.

Dorothy Arn of Kinistino, defeated Mick Sinclair, Melfort, in the second event; Laura Hedlun, Weldon, won the third by defeating Margaret Sorenson of Kinistino, and Jackie Brieter's Weldon rink captured the fourth by downing Sophie Pannell's Melfort rink.

Twenty-two rinks competed in the annual bonspiel at Viscount with entries coming from Lanigan, Plunkett, Watrous, Glynfield, Meacham, Central Potash and the village.

The main event was won by a rink skipped by Ron Grisdale of Glynfield with Jim

By Walt Riddell of the Star-Phoenix

Hale, Viscount, runner-up. Other winners and runners-up in events were Frank Solmes, Lanigan, and John Witkowicz, Viscount, in the second; Larry Dale and Pat McAlaster, in the third and Ken Thuen and Glen Gibb in the fourth.

The first eight-ender scored by a women's rink in the history of the North Battleford Granite Curling Club was registered by a rink skipped by Kathy Read's foursome of Sally Woodward, Joan Potratz and Vi McIntyre in a recent game against Pat Keeler's rink. The eight-ender came in the fourth end.

Event winners in the annual Wilkie bonspiel in which 52 rinks competed were: first, Russell Horback, Wilkie; second, Keith Hartridge, Wilkie; third, Jim Ballentine, North Battleford; fourth, Bruce Gordon, Cut Knife.

TIONS