The two major events of the North Battleford Men's Bonspiel wound up Tuesday night with Doug Scott taking top honors in the Boyd event, and Luther Muth doing the same in the Raes event.

Scott and his North Battleford Granite rink of Ray Thompson, Darryl Thompson, and Walter Kormish edged the Vern Bannerman rink, skipped by clubmate John Kabatoff, 9-8 in the final.

Muth took another close decision in winning the Raes event by nipping Bob LeGoffe of the Saskatchewan Hospital 4-3.

Bill Herschfeld, Andy Sabotnik, and Albert Tkach joined Muth on the winning rink from Cando.

Ed Zawada finished third and Len Schultz fourth in the Boyd event, while Camille Haegebaert and Bill Wouters were third and fourth, respectively, in the Raes event.

The finalists have been decided in two more events with North Battleford Granite Club rinks gaining all four berths. Gordon Hellofs will meet Harry Griffiths in the CJNB event and Keith Berg meets Barry Cole in the Hunter's Sports Shop event.

George Knight and Clarence Reid of North Battleford, and John Newbold of Borden and Erwin Boulton of Battleford have reached the semis in the Hotels event.

Ron Kolodzejski of Foam Lake won the A-side final in the southern Saskatchewan schoolboy curling playoffs Tuesday at Regina with a 7-5 win over Glen Hillson of Moose Jaw Central.

Kolodzejski advanced to the final with a 6-5 extra-end win over Fred Muckelt of Regina Campbell in semi-final play, while Hillson defeated Jerry Mozel of Regina Scott 7-3.

Keith Rotariu of Wood Mountain took a 6-4 decision from Muckelt to earn a berth in the B final against Hillson.

In earlier games, Muckelt
