https://www.newspapers.com/image/509800318

SCORE EIGHT ENDER—Art Webb and his rink from North Battleford pictured here with the complete set of rocks in the house following the match against Bill Thrower, also of North Battleford, in which Webb scored an eight ender. The victory was Webb's fourth in the N.B. Shirtsleeve bonspiel, being staged at the Granite Curling rink in the northern city. In his match against Thrower, Webb was trailing 5-2 after five complete ends when he scored his big end to take a 10-5 lead after six ends and go on for the victory.

—N.B. News-Optimist Photo