

Richard 'Spiel Proves Exciting

RICHARD.—J. L. Cruickshank skipped his rink to victory in the recent Richard bonspiel when 12 rinks competed and several favored rinks were defeated.

Three rinks competed in the finals. Mr. Cruickshank's rink, comprising Bernard Kakesch, W. J. Langley and Richmond McCurchy tangled with Wes Baker's rink of Steve MicKalosky, J. Lebid and Edwin Baker, after Baker's rink defeated Klaassen's in the last end. The final game was tied at the ninth end, with a capacity crowd watching the Cruickshank win.

A high school bonspiel was played later with seven rinks entered. Doug McCurchy skipped his rink to three successive victories, the final against a team skipped by Roger Lauzon. The former rink comprised Dennis Kokesch, David Nelson and Merlynne Bouskiel, and the latter, Ida Bouttillion, Leonard Cyr and Maxine Tupper. Other skips were Wilfred Lederhouse, Art Reiley, Donald Figurski, Don Baker and Stewart Reiley.
